Daniel John Tarkanian

Las Vegas, NV 89107

RE: MUR 7083
Ending Spending, Inc.

Dear Mr. Tarkanian:

The Federal Election Commission has considered the allegations contained in your complaint dated June 13, 2016, and found that on the basis of the information provided in your complaint, and information provided by Ending Spending, Inc. ("ESI"), there is no reason to believe that ESI violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(c)(2) and 11 C.F.R. § 109.10(e)(1)(vi). In addition, the Commission dismissed in the exercise of prosecutorial discretion the allegation that ESI violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(c)(1). Accordingly, on March 6, 2018, the Commission closed the file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). There was an insufficient number of votes to approve a Factual and Legal Analysis. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision is not required in this matter, but if one is issued, it will be provided to you.

The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8). If you have any questions, please contact Dominique Dillenseger, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,
